

Alarm phases of emergency plan

ALWAYS sound the alarm via telephone number 100, even if the fire alarm button or fire alarm system has already been activated.

Phase	Definition	Information	Figure
Assistance	For planned activities, the fire brigade's assistance is required
	Alarm	No audible alarm
0	Calamity that is limited to one department. Calamity with injury without external help.	Small fire, wounded person or an environmental incident; fire brigade or first aid needed, possible (emergency) shutdown of department, possible preventive evacuation.	0
	Alarm <input type="checkbox"/> Fire or accident with hazardous substance <input type="checkbox"/> Accident with injury	<input type="checkbox"/> Audible alarm via emergency announcement system, followed by a message <input type="checkbox"/> No audible alarm
1	Calamity that is limited to one department where external help is needed	Small fire, wounded person or an environmental incident; fire brigade needed, possible (emergency) stop of department, possible preventive evacuation.	1
	Alarm <input type="checkbox"/> Fire or accident with hazardous substance	<input type="checkbox"/> Audible alarm via emergency announcement system, followed by a message
2	Calamity with consequences for other department(s) or calamity with injury requiring ambulance.	Large fire, environmental incident, injured person requiring external assistance, possible (emergency) stop of several departments, possible preventive evacuation.	2
	Alarm <input type="checkbox"/> Fire or accident with hazardous substance <input type="checkbox"/> Accident with injury	<input type="checkbox"/> Audible alarm via emergency announcement system, followed by a message <input type="checkbox"/> No audible alarm
3	Calamity with consequences outside the company site.	Large fire, environmental incident or multiple injured persons requiring external assistance.	3

Immediately sound the alarm – Listen to the emergency announcement – Take note of wind direction – Follow the department's evacuation plan – Check to see if your work permit has been revoked

Alarm phases of emergency plan

ALWAYS sound the alarm via telephone number 100, even if the fire alarm button or fire alarm system has already been activated.

Alarm

- Fire or accident with hazardous substance
- Accident with injury
- Audible alarm via emergency announcement system, followed by a message
- No audible alarm

Immediately sound the alarm – Listen to the emergency announcement – Take note of wind direction – Follow the department's evacuation plan – Check to see if your work permit has been revoked